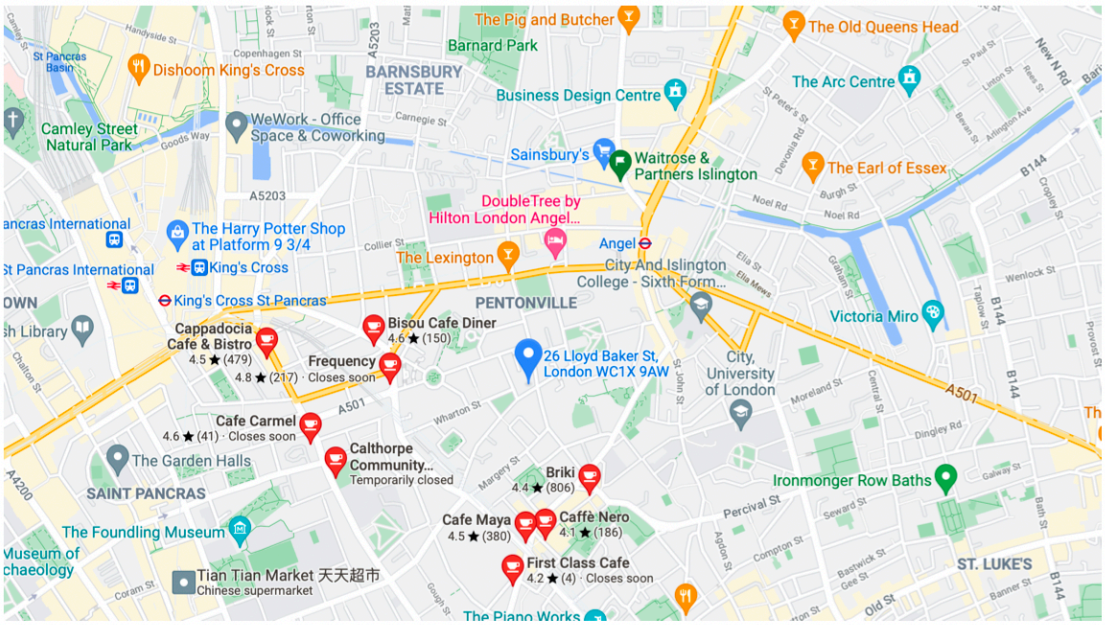
PLACES TO EAT



There is a variety of places to eat close to the practice, below are a few examples. There are many more…

Cappadocia Cafe - A menu of traditional British fare from a full English to fish 'n' chips, panini, salads, baked potatoes etc in a cozy daytime eatery.

Cafe Carmel - In their own words: "Bisou Cafe Diner can set you up with appetising, nutritious food".

Frequency - A modern, rustic coffee shop with rave reviews, offering light fare such as bagels, sandwiches and pastries.

Briki - Located in Exmouth Market, Briki is a deli and coffee brewery offering new, alternative choices with traditional recipes and quality coffee.

Cafe Maya - Comfy cafe. A wide selection of good wholesome food. Vegetarian friendly, vegan options, gluten free options.

These are Internet based reviews or descriptions on the cafe's own website, they are not Homa's opinions.